WARNING
Bogus E-mail About Jury Service

Citizens have reported receiving e-mail that is not valid communication from a federal court.

April 15, 2008

E-mail that appears to be a grand jury subpoena issued by the United States District Court for the District of California. The official domain address for the federal courts is USCOURTS.GOV; however, this e-mail was sent from a USCOURTS.COM address.

November 18, 2008

E-mail from a mariad-g@jury.highcourt.gov stating the citizen failed to report for jury duty and a warrant is being issued for the citizen's arrest within 48 hours. The official domain address for the federal courts is USCOURTS.GOV; however this e-mail was sent from a HIGHCOURT.GOV address.

Because the e-mail may contain harmful links, recipients should not click on links in the message or download any information from it.

Jury duty is a vital civic responsibility and should be taken seriously by all citizens. However, it is a crime to falsely represent oneself as a federal court official.

Nebraska citizens receiving e-mail about jury service from an address domain other than "USCOURTS.GOV" should report the e-mail to the local FBI (402-493-8688) or to the Clerk of Court of the U. S. District Court for the District of Nebraska (402-661-7350).
